WEDDINGS-ENGAGEMENTS

Society here was much interested in the recent announcement of the engagement of Miss Rachel A. Cartwright, 1501 H, daughter of Mr. Jasper Lynch, of Lakewood, N. J., to Mr. George D. Clewes, of Orange, N. J. The marriage is expected to take place this fall in the Lynch home at Lakewood. Miss Lynch has spent the summer with her parents at their cottage at Spring Lake, N. J. She is known here as Miss Dolly Lynch, one of the most charming girls who have ever visited Washington. She was the frequent guest of Miss Frederica Morgan, who is now Mrs. Evan Sinclair Cameron, of Boston, and was the maid of honor at her wedding.

Miss Catherine E. Manning, daughter of the late Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Manning, of Leesburg, Va., and Mr. Robert O. Bennington were married at noon yesterday in the Church of the Ascension, Rev. J. Henning Nelson officiating, in the presence of only a few intimate friends. Following the ceremony the young couple left for their honeymoon at the home of the bride's parents at Leesburg, Va. The wedding was private and her only attendant was Miss L. M. Leake, of Virginia. Mr. Bennington, who is a member of the Virginia bar, is now in the army, and will be at the Atlantic City, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home at Livingston Heights, Va. after October 25.

The marriage of Miss Anne Emily House, daughter of Mrs. Hanson House, formerly of Leesburg, near Washington, Va., to Mr. John W. W. Rust, of Fairfax, Va., is of much interest in and around Washington. The ceremony was performed on the evening of September 27, at 8 o'clock, in Zion Episcopal Church, in Vienna, Va., by Rev. Frank Jones, rector. The bridesmaid of honor was Miss Ida H. Jones, of Fairfax, and the bridesmaids were Miss S. S. McLean Jones and Miss Katherine Rex Hinkle, of Gloucester County. Miss Mabel Danell, of Cambridge County, and Miss Virginia Richardson, of Fairfax, Little Ann Mossin Danell, of Warrenton, was a second maid of honor. Mr. Robert Antrim Rust, of Haymarket, Va., was the best man and the ushers were Mr. Frederick Richardson, Mr. Harry Keiser, of Fairfax, Mr. Frank Carr, of Leesburg, Mr. Albert Rust, of Haymarket, and Mr. Butler of Washington. The church was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers, and the altar brilliantly lighted with candles. The wedding march was played by Miss Sarah Bartlett, of Warrenton. The ceremony "Oh, Promise Me" was played very softly.

The bride wore a high-necked gown of white satin trimmed with seed pearls, with a veil held with orange blossoms, and carried a shower of bride roses. She was escorted by her uncle, Mr. Robert Antrim Danell, who gave her in marriage. The maid of honor wore pink marquisette veiled with marquisette and a short veil of tulle held with a wreath of pink roses.

The second maid of honor was in white French muslin with a wreath of pink roses. The bridesmaids wore handkerchief-bordered white French muslin, with short veils of tulle and wreaths of pink roses, and carried showers of pink roses. A reception followed in the home of the bride's parents for the relatives and

Two engagements of much interest to Washington society are those of Miss Mary Owen Scott, of Miss Alice Scott, daughters of Mr. W. Owen Scott, formerly of Mr. William Irving Howbert and the latter to Mr. Charles S. Lansing, both of Colorado Springs. The Misses Scott are well known and very popular in Washington, and their continued absence of late has been of much interest.

Their residence at 1111 Connecticut avenue has been leased to the Turkish government for the embassy quarters for the last two years, during which time Mr. Scott and his daughters have traveled extensively. No dates, as yet, have been set for the weddings. The engagements were announced at a tea given by Mrs. Frank Kerchner, of Colorado Springs, Colo., for the Misses Scott.

Cards have been received in Washington from Mr. and Mrs. Amos R. Corey, of Ogden, Utah, for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Edith Annetta Corey, to Mr. George William Ramsey, of this city. The wedding will take place Wednesday evening, October 11, at 8 o'clock, at 2500 Washington avenue, Ogden. Mr. Ramsey will bring his bride to Washington to live, and after January 1 she will be at home at 1133 Columbia road. Miss Corey is well known in Washington, having made a number of friends here on a recent visit to Judge and Mrs. Arthur B. Hayes, at their residence in Sixteenth street.

Mr. Curtis Beall Backus and Miss Eleanor Perkins, both of Glenclaryn, Va., were married in St. John's Chapel, of Glenclaryn, at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, September 26.

The Rev. Willard G. Davenport, of Emmanuel Church, Anacostia, uncle of the groom, performed the ceremony. The bride's father, Franklin R. Perkins, gave her away. Her sister, Rachel, was maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Constance A. Backus, was the bride's cousin, Lucy Wright, was the bridesmaid. The groom's brother, William A. Backus, was best man, and the bride's cousin, Wallace W. Wright, and Lewis C. Schaff were the ushers.

The chapel was tastefully decorated with golden-rod and blue asters. The bride and bridegroom received their friends from 7:30 to 9 at the bride's home, Walnut and Olive streets. The house decorations were chrysanthemums and roses throughout.

The bride wore a gown of white hand-embroidered muslin veiled in tulle, while orange blossoms wreathed her head. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was dressed in pink marquisette over silk and carried pink roses.

The bridesmaids wore pale green tulle with silver trimmings over silk. Their flowers were yellow chrysanthemums. There were a number of out-of-town guests from Washington and Forest Glen, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Backus left for a short wedding journey. They will be at home in Havana, Cuba, after November 1.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening, September 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William English Ward, 323 Seventh street southeast, when their daughter, Miss Ethel Blanche Ward, became the bride of Mr. Julian Theodore Harrell, a solo, "O, Promise Me," was rendered by Miss Annie Bevans, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. W. Johnson, pastor of Grace Baptist Church, in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride was veiled in white satin, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried bride roses. After a brief reception Mr. and Mrs. Harrell left for Niagara Falls and Buffalo. They will be at home to their friends after October 15, at 230 Twelfth street south-east.
